

English-based Degree Program Course outline

Course title	Studies on Economic Cooperation
--------------	---------------------------------

Credit	2
--------	---

Instructor	Yusuke Kamiya
------------	---------------

Course outline
This course will introduce basic economic theories and analytical tools to understand the main issues of economic cooperation including poverty, economic growth, human development, development assistance and policy evaluation.

Attainment objectives
Students will be able to apply the basic theories and analytical tools to the issues of economic cooperation.

Study Method
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Lectures on basic economic theories and analytical tools- Reading and presentation by students- Practical sessions on data analysis