Application Documents

All documents and certificates must be prepared in English. Download the specified forms (1), (2), (3), and (4) at the following URL:

<https://www.econ.ryukoku.ac.jp/daigakuin/en/eprogram/>

Once completed, the forms should be printed on one side of A4 or letter-sized sheets. Please make sure that everything is printed clearly.

(1) Application Form (Form 1)

(2) Application Sheet (Form 2)

- A recent photograph should be attached to Application Sheet.

(3) Research Proposal (Form 3)

(4) Two Letters of Recommendation (Form 4)

- Each letter should be completed by an evaluator who can assess applicants' academic potential and personality (e.g., a faculty member or an expert in your field of study).

(5) Certificate of (Expected) Graduation and Academic Transcript from the university attended

- Both documents must be officially certified. Photocopies are not accepted.
- Please do NOT send the original diploma. Those who submit a certificate of expected graduation must submit a certificate of graduation during the enrollment procedure.
- Academic Transcript must contain all the grades earned in the university.
- Applicants who completed or will complete education in the People's Republic of China need to visit the China Higher-education Student Information Online Verification System at the following website:

<http://www.chsi.com.cn/xlcx/bgys.jsp>

Follow the directions posted there to download your 教育部學歷證書電子注冊備案表 (Graduates of Chinese Universities, only) or 教育部學籍在線驗証報告 (Current Students at Chinese Universities, only.) The applicants must print the certificate and enclose it with the application documents. (Students who attended or are attending universities in Taiwan, Hong Kong or Macau need not submit these forms.)

(6) Official Test Scores of English Proficiency

- We accept official TOEFL (iBT), IELTS (Academic Module), and Duolingo English Test scores acquired within the last two years.

Applicants are required to submit materials for each test, as follows:

TOEFL

- 1) A copy of the Test Taker Score Report (or Examinee Score Report)

Admission Policy

The Master's Degree Program aims to cultivate researchers who have a deep understanding of the world and the ability to build a theory and conduct an applied analysis, or to train advanced professionals who have practical abilities based on high ideals and academic knowledge.

For these purposes, we are looking for the following students:

- Students who want to play a role in peace and development of regional societies and the world, fulfill the eligibility of admission, are eager to study, and have good potential.
- Students who want to conduct research at the international standard, or to have advanced practical abilities.
- Students who want to be leaders involved in public activities.
- In order to establish creative and stimulating research environments, students who have careers in areas other than economics are also encouraged to apply.
